

Complete the sentences with as if / as though, like, or - (if no word is needed).

- a It looks _____ terribly complicated.
- b It looks _____ a machine for peeling potatoes.
- c It doesn't look _____ very practical.
- d It looks _____ the machine is very slow.
- e It looks _____ the man has been fixing it.
- f It doesn't look _____ something that many people would want to buy.
- g The man looks _____ very old.
- h He looks _____ a professor.

Correct the mistakes. Check (✓) the two sentences that are correct.

- a That seems like a very good idea. ✓

- b _____
He appears to being asleep.

- c _____
It seems if we've been here before.

- d _____
They are look like rain clouds.

- e The local people all seemed like very friendly.

- f I seem to get poorer and poorer every year.

- g _____
The bar looked as if cool, so we went in.

- h _____
You look as you've seen a ghost.