

Reflect

reflect = think deeply about an experience

Lena's first stop on her journey will be at Ellis Island. Tour Ellis Island as it was 100 years ago at tinyurl.com/exploreellis . Click on the "Explore Ellis" tab. Follow the numbers. Look at all the photos and read the captions (words next to the photos.) If there's a video, watch it.

Tell three ways the 1907 immigrant experience was similar to what immigrants in your family experienced.

In Room ____, the photo of _____ reminds me of my family's immigrant experience because _____.

In Room ____, the photo of _____ reminds me of my family's immigrant experience because _____.

In Room ____, the photo of _____ reminds me of my family's immigrant experience because _____.

Now let's put your ideas into a paragraph. Your topic is the immigration experience. Your main idea is that 1907 immigration wasn't completely different from immigration for your family. Write a topic sentence that tells this:

Immigration in 1907 was _____ my family's immigration experience.

To compose your paragraph, copy your topic sentence. Next, tell three details that support what you said. Use the ideas you got from touring Ellis Island, ex. Doctors checked immigrants when they came in 1907, and a doctor examined my grandparents, too, when they came to the U.S.

Did you copy your topic sentence?

Yes ☐ No ☐

Did you write at least 4 sentences?

Yes ☐ No ☐

Does every sentence start with a capital letter?

Yes ☐ No ☐

Does every sentence end with a period?

Yes ☐ No ☐

Read your paragraph aloud to someone in your family. Who listened to your paragraph? _____ What did that person say about your paragraph?
