

DAY 11 - GRAMMAR

Will/won't/shall

a Look at the sentences. Is each sentence a promise (P), an offer (O), a decision (D), or a suggestion (S)?

- | | |
|--|--------------------------|
| 1 Shall I help you carry that box? | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2 Shall we go for a walk? | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3 I'll drive you to the station if you like. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4 I think I'll have spaghetti. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5 Don't worry. I'll call you later. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 6 Let's go to the beach. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 7 I won't be late for the meeting. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 8 Shall we have chicken for dinner? | <input type="checkbox"/> |

b Choose the correct word in italics to complete the sentence.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 | A I need to go to the station. |
| | B <input type="text"/> call a taxi for you. |
| 2 | A This document is secret. |
| | B Don't worry – I <input type="text"/> not show it to anyone. |
| 3 | A This box is really heavy! |
| | B <input type="text"/> I help you carry it? |
| 4 | A Those shoes are in the sale, madam. They're only £20. |
| | B Great! <input type="text"/> take them. |
| 5 | A <input type="text"/> we go out this evening? |
| | B Good idea. Let's go to the cinema. |
| 6 | A I'm working late tonight. <input type="text"/> you cook dinner? |
| | B Of course. |

C Complete the conversation with will or shall and the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

A ¹ Shall we go (we / go) out for dinner tonight?

B Er ... well, I haven't got much money.

² (I / cook) something for you at my flat?

A Don't worry. ³ (I / pay) for the meal.

B Really? Thank you! That sounds great. Where ⁴ (we / eat)?

A Let's go for a curry. ⁵ (I / book) a table?

B No, it's OK. ⁶ (I / do) it. I know a good place near here. ⁷ (I / call) them now.

A OK. ⁸ (you / call) me after you make the booking? I'd like to know what time we're going to meet.

B Yes, ⁹ (I / call) you later. I promise
¹⁰ (I / forget).

A Great. Talk to you later then. Bye.

 The End