JOYANN S GARDEN

Joyann and her dad planted a garden in their backyard. She watched every day for the vegetables to grow and get ripe. Finally, it happened! She asked her father if they could go and pick some. Her dad said yes, but not until tomorrow.

Early the next day, Joyann got her gloves and ran to the garden. She stopped suddenly, looked at her vegetables and screamed. To her surprise, birds were pecking on the corn and rabbits were nibbling over the green beans. Sadly she turned away and went back into the house. She wondered if they would ever get to taste anything from the garden or if the animals were going to eat everything. Dad told her not to worry about it, and that they would go and check the garden together the next day.

Early the next morning, Joyann put on her garden gloves and went into the garden with her father. Together, they picked a full head of lettuce and a basket full of juicy tomatoes and took them into the kitchen. Later that afternoon, Joyann and her dad made a big batch of garden salad which they enjoyed for lunch.
