

LISTENING: Steph on cooking

1. Listen and answer the questions in your notebook.

1. Does Steph prefer Spanish cooking or English cooking?
2. What is Steph's favourite Spanish food?
3. Where did Steph live before she came to Spain?
4. Why does she think that Spanish cooking is better than English cooking?
5. Why has Steph's cooking become more Spanish since she moved to Spain?
6. Does Steph prefer eating out in restaurants or cooking at home? Why?
7. Why doesn't Steph want to open her own restaurant?

2. Listen and complete the dialogue.

- Steph, welcome. How long have you been (1) _____ in Spain?
- We've been living here just over five years now.
- And where did you live (2) _____?
- We lived right in the centre of (3) _____.
- Uh ha, and can you tell us what (4) _____ there are between Spanish and English cooking?
- Well, personally for me I find Spanish cooking is much (5) _____. Their ingredients are much better. They have more (6) _____, and they use a lot of olive oil, so this is very healthy.
- I see, and do you think that your cooking has become Spanish since you (7) _____ here?
- Yes, because obviously you're used to the ingredients that are available in the supermarkets and also the markets, and it's (8) _____ and has a lot of flavour.
- What's your (9) _____ Spanish dish, Steph?
- Ooo, I would say (10) _____ because that is very healthy, and I also love the tortilla.
- Do you prefer cooking erm.... at home, or eating out in restaurants?
- Well, I love cooking, but I must be honest and say that when you eat out in restaurants there's (11) _____ not much work there.
- So no (12) _____, Stephanie.
- Exactly!
- Okay, and er... would you like to open your own restaurant one day?
- I think now I'm (13) _____, but it would have been very nice perhaps many years ago.
