

Films and Awards

I. Complete the sentences with adjectives dull gripping moving predictable scary serious violent slow funny spectacular

- 1 The film was so _____ that I cried at the end.
- 2 The film was so _____ ! I knew who the killer was right at the start.
- 3 The film was so _____. I fell asleep in the middle.
- 4 I like films about _____ subjects. They really make you think.
- 5 My mum never watches _____ films because she doesn't like all the fighting.
- 6 I can't watch _____ films. I always have bad dreams.
- 7 This film won an award for its _____ costumes. They were amazing.
- 8 I couldn't switch off the TV because the film was so _____.
- 9 I like fast-paced action films. This film was too _____ for me.
- 10 I laughed all the way through the film. It was so _____.

II. Listen to a journalist talking about the Razzie Awards. Are the sentences True or False?

1. The awards ceremony takes place before the Oscars.
2. John Wilson started the Razzies because he hates all Hollywood films.
3. Membership of the Golden Raspberry Award Foundation is free.
4. No winners collected their Razzies Awards before 1988.
5. Sandra Bullock won a Razzie and an Oscar for the same film.