Write true if the statement is true and false if the statement is false.

_____ 9. All birds lay eggs. (page A70)

_____ 10. Many insects change form four times. (page A71)

_____ 11. A nymph is the first stage of an incomplete metamorphosis. (page A71)

_____ 12. In general, larger animals have shorter life spans than smaller animals of the same kind. (page A72)

_____ 13. Mammals, such as rabbits and humans, do not lay eggs. (page A72)

Circle the letter that best answers the question or completes the sentence.

14. (page A70) What is the first stage in the life cycle of most animals?

A. an egg
B. a nymph
C. an adult
D. a larva

15. (page A71) The nymph looks like the adult, but usually has no

A. offspring.
B. outer casing.
C. wings.
D. parents.

16. (page A72) When mammals reproduce, their young are

A. hatched from eggs.
B. born alive.
C. called larva.
D. born in an outer casing.