

The Subject and Object of a Sentence

In each sentence, write S for subject, V for verb and O for object. Some sentence do not have an object. Leave the rest of the boxes blank.

Rose paints a picture.

Sam runs quickly.

Lucy is riding a horse.

The dog frightened the man.

We sang happily this morning.

He crashed the car.

The dragon was breathing fire.

The author is writing a novel.

They are singing a song.

Grandpa is sleeping.

She whistles a tune loudly.

The lion climbs the tree.

The woman is taking photos.

The boy watched the monkey.

The monkey watched the boy.