Use of English

6 Complete the text with an appropriate word in each gap.

In 1899, a lighthouse was built on one of the Flannan Isles, off the north-west coast of Scotland, to warn passing ships about the dangerous rocks around the islands. Three men had to be in the lighthouse at all times to keep the light burning as a warning to any boats in the area.

Then, one night in December 1900, a passing ship said ¹ _____ they hadn't seen a light in the lighthouse. They reported ² _____ they had seen it the night before, and with no reason for it to be out, this was curious. They reported this to some people on land, but because of extreme weather, they weren't able to send a boat out to check if everything was okay for another two weeks.

They eventually reached the island on 26 December, but when they got ³ _____ their boat, there was no sign of the three lighthouse men and the door of the lighthouse was locked. When they looked ⁴ _____ the windows they saw the clock on the wall had stopped and there was no fire in the ⁵ _____. When they managed to get ⁶ _____ the lighthouse, there was a full meal cooked and prepared and still on the table. They looked ⁷ _____ the men in the lighthouse and all over the island but found no one. The three men had just disappeared.

When the people in charge of the lighthouse looked ⁸ _____ the event, they concluded that the men had probably fallen into the sea during a large storm. However, some people believe that the men could ⁹ _____ had an argument and killed each other, before falling into the sea. Others think that they might ¹⁰ _____ been kidnapped by passing pirates.
