Basketball is an _____ game. At the beginning of the game, each team stands on his side of the court. For instance, if the Chicago Bulls stand on the _____ side, then the Boston Celtics stand on the _____ side. Before the game, the referee flips a coin and that action decides which team begins. If the Bulls begin, they have to try to invade the Celtics zone. Once they're in, the Celtics become the _____ and the Bulls the _____.

The defenders have to _____ the attackers. But they must _____ any player who isn't bouncing any ball. Having this said, a player must not _____ a ball more than 5 seconds. If he doesn't pass the ball before that 5 seconds time lapse, he commits a violation of the rules known as « foul ».
