

through up back over by away down in

1. I couldn't get _____ the lesson; it was too hard.
2. We're having a hard time getting _____ ever since my husband lost his job.
3. Cold, dark winters always get me _____.
4. I gave _____ taking sugar in tea and coffee to lose weight.
5. I couldn't finish the crossword puzzle and had to give _____ and look at the answers.
6. It took her a long time to get _____ her dog's death.
7. Promise not to give _____ my secret.
8. I gave the money _____ that she'd lent to me.

without up behind with off in in across

1. A car cut _____ and nearly caused an accident.
2. Let's cut _____ the park on the way home from school – it'll be faster.
3. We were cut _____ in the middle of our conversation.
4. I could do _____ a cup of tea about now.
5. After cutting the tree down, the logger cut it _____ into logs.
6. We fell _____ on the project and finished it ten days late.
7. After he reported the gang, he feared they would do him _____.
8. There's no sugar, so you'll have to do _____.

out for in back along with up apart

1. He drew _____ a deep breath before answering the question.
2. Do _____ your shoelaces or you might fall.
3. He was so quiet at first, but the teacher managed to draw him _____ and get him to participate.
4. The postman drew _____ when the ferocious dog began to bark.
5. I'm afraid the roof will fall _____ if an earthquake hits the area.
6. I get _____ all my brothers and sisters.
7. The chair is very old and in terrible condition. If you sit on it, the chair will fall _____.
8. I think I'm falling _____ Jeremy – I just can't stop thinking about him!