

Phonics

Long I sound (ie)

When two vowels go walking, the first one does the talking.

Read each sentence.

Write the word with the long I sound in the box.

For example: The baby cries. cries

1. The flies are in the bin.

2. Daddy has a blue tie.

3. The pig eats the pie.

4. We ate fries and chicken.

5. The spies look for clues.

Read the poem and answer the questions below.

Call the spies!
Someone is telling lies.
We need to ask the sneaky flies.
Who ate the box of fries?
Who ate all the cherry pie?
Look it's the sneaky flies.

Call the spies!
Now, who stole the missing ties?
Again, call the spies!

1. Write a word that rhymes with ties. _____

2. Which two things were eaten?

1. _____

2. _____

3. What was missing?

The _____ were missing.

4. Who do you think ate the fries and pie?

The _____ ate the fries and pie.

5. What do you think the word sneaky means?

