

Writing an email

You've recently received an email from your friend, Jim. Read part of his email and write your reply to Jim.

Have you been to an interesting amusement park, museum, or art gallery recently? I'm looking for somewhere to take my cousin. She's staying with us for a week. Her name is Martha. Tell me where you went and what it was like. Help me, please! You always go to exciting places. Thanks!

Write an email in about 100 words. Include these points:

- Thank Jim for his email
- Tell him where you've been recently
- Say if you enjoyed it
- Describe what you did there
- Say what you liked best and why
- Wish Jim and his cousin a good time