

TEARS OF AUTUMN BY YOSHIKO UCHIDA

I. Click on T if the sentence is True or F if sentence is False.

1. Hana`s uncle want to find for Taro Takeda a fine young woman who is strong and brave enough to cross the blue ocean.
T F
2. Hana wanted more for herself than her sisters had in their proper, arranged, and loveless marriages.
T F
3. Hana wanted to keep the smothering strictures of life in her village.
T F
4. Hana certainly was going to marry a farmer and spend her life working besides him planting.
T F
5. Hana`s sisters they both two got marriage to a merchant everyone.
T F

II. Multiple choice. Click on the correct answer.

1. Hana`s sister ventured in front of Hana:
 - a. It would be a certainly a different kind of life
 - b. It would be a certainly a different kind of travel
 - c. It would be a certainly a different kind of experience
2. Hana's mother objected to her going to Tokyo to seek employment as a:
 - a. Homemaker
 - b. Teacher
 - c. Journalist
3. Hana spoke to her uncle. Oji San, perhaps I should go to America to make this lonely man a:
 - a. Good wife
 - b. Good mate
 - c. Good girlfriend
4. "You know" Oji uncle said looking at Hana, it may be a very good life:
 - a. In America
 - b. In Los Angles
 - c. In California
5. Hana hides the letter and photograph in the sleeve of her kimono and took them to the outhouse to:
 - a. See in private
 - b. Study in private
 - c. Throw them away