

Parts of Speech
Pronouns

Some words take the place of nouns. These are called pronouns.

Examples:	Sentence with noun(s)	Sentence with pronoun
	Jim and Jerry are brothers.	They are brothers.

The pronoun "they" takes the place of "Jim and Jerry".

The girls in our family like to swim. We like to swim.

The pronoun "we" takes the place of "the girls".

Use a pronoun in the sentence. Words to use: we and they. Use a capital letter.

1. My friend and I like dance. _____ take lessons on Saturday.
2. Their family and our family are going to the movies. _____ are our best friends.
3. My grandparents came to our house. _____ enjoy hearing their stories.
4. The puppies were tired. _____ chased squirrels in the yard all day.
5. Mom and I washed the car. _____ even cleaned the inside.
6. My brothers play soccer. _____ enjoy going to professional soccer games, too.
7. My family has a cottage on Thunder Lake. _____ are going there tomorrow.
8. Ted and David are in third grade now. _____ will be in fourth grade next year.
9. Nancy and I are twins. _____ always help each other with homework.
10. The actors tried out for the part. _____ are all experienced actors.
11. My family likes to hike in the mountains. _____ are going hiking this weekend.