

Pouvoir ("can" / able to) et devoir ("must" / have to)

One can

I have never been able to

I would be able to

I will have to

They can

We must (nous)

They used to have to

I can

He used to be able to

One must

He will never be able to

They will have to

France has had to

The population will be able to