

In the Ocean

Read pages 2–5 again. Look and write.

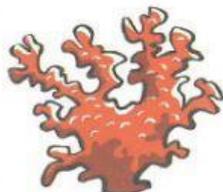

Read pages 6–9 again.

Tick ✓ or cross ✗.

- ① Coral reefs are made of tiny animals.
- ② No animals live around coral reefs.
- ③ You can see many coral reefs in cities.
- ④ Sea anemones are plants.
- ⑤ Sea anemones don't catch clownfish.
- ⑥ A sea dragon looks like seaweed.
- ⑦ Sea dragons don't live in cold water.
- ⑧ Crabs have ten pincers.
- ⑨ The Japanese spider crab is very small.

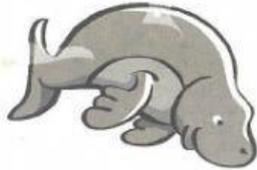

Read pages 10–13 again.

Look and number.

- 1 Their long tentacles can sting you.
- 2 They are intelligent and very fast.
- 3 This can go deep down into the ocean.
- 4 Sometimes they swim with people.
- 5 They can be beautiful and dangerous.
- 6 This can take photographs of anglerfish.
- 7 They live in family groups.
- 8 This can find strange fish in dark places.
- 9 You can see right through them.

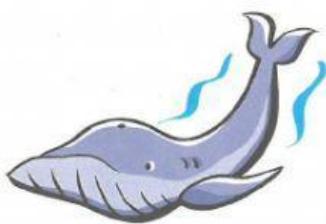

Read pages 14–16 again. Complete.

Dugongs are slow-moving animals.

They are also called _____ because they eat green _____.

Years ago _____ were _____ of manta rays, but now we know they are _____.

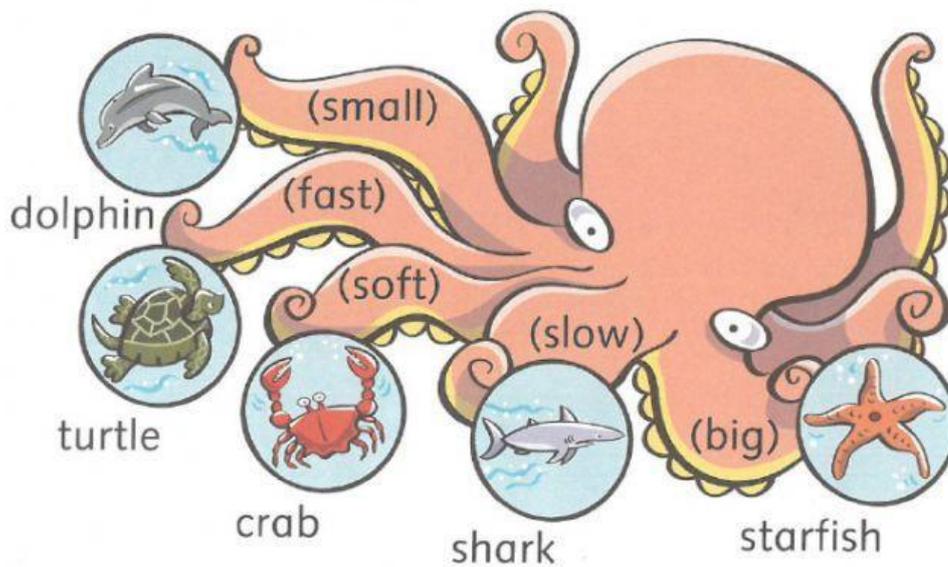

Whales are the _____ of the sea. They are _____, like dolphins and dugongs. They have warm _____, and they _____ air.

After reading. Read and answer.

anglerfish sea anemone sea dragon
ocean coral reef octopus lionfish

- ① I look like seaweed.
I'm a sea dragon.
- ② I'm an animal that looks like a plant.
I'm a _____.
- ③ I have eight tentacles and can change colour.
I'm an _____.
- ④ I'm a home for thousands of fish.
I'm a _____.
- ⑤ I have stripes on my body.
I'm a _____.
- ⑥ I have a light on my head.
I'm an _____.
- ⑦ I'm deep and full of life.
I'm the _____.

Look and write.

An octopus is smaller than a dolphin.

An octopus _____

An octopus _____

An octopus _____

An octopus _____