Jim Crow Laws

Dr. Martin Luther King did not think the separation of white and black people was fair.

He became a peaceful protester.

He influenced people to protest discrimination.

WATCH THIS!

After leading peaceful protest like Bus Boycotts and "Sit-Ins", Dr. King continued his fight for JUSTICE.

He delivered a very important Speech, during the MARCH ON WASHTINGTON. It's called "I Have a Dream" because he spoke about dreaming to one day living in a world where people weren't treated differently because of the color of their skin.

Now, thanks to Dr. Martin Luther King, and many other activists like him, American society has grown to show more respect for EQUALITY.

Sadly, some people did not like change or equality. On April 1968, Martin Luther King was shot and killed by one of those people.
