

MODAL VERBS REVIEW

1. We use should for ...
necessity      possibility      advice

2. We use must for ...
necessity      advice      ability

3. We use don't / doesn't have to for ...
prohibition      unnecessary      impossibility

4. We use could, may and might for ...
necessity      possibility      obligation

5. Sometimes mustn't is the same as ...
don't have to      may not      can't

6. Choose the same idea "It's possible that I pass my exam"
I will pass my exam.
I may pass my exam.
I can pass my exam.

7. Choose the same idea "It's prohibited to smoke here"
You can't smoke here.
You don't have to smoke here.
You may not smoke here.

8. Choose the same idea "It isn't necessary to take an umbrella"
You can't take an umbrella.
You don't have to take an umbrella.
You mustn't take an umbrella.

9. Choose the idea to complete the sentence: "The vaccination has been tested hundreds of times."
It can be safe.      It must be safe.      It may be safe.

10. You are eating too many pizzas. I think you ...eat much fast food.
shouldn't      don't have to      can't

