THE SHEEP AND THE PIG

One day, a shepherd was herding his sheep in the meadow when he found a fat pig. The shepherd immediately caught the pig with his bare hands as the pig squealed as hard as he could because he was really hurt. However, despite his deafening squeal and his wiggles, the shepherd still carried the pig to the butcher in the market.

The sheep who was following the shepherd was astonished by the pig struggle. One of the sheep asked, "Why did you squeal like that? The shepherd also does the same thing to us, but we feel like making such noises are embarrassing.

"It is because when he catches you, he only wants your wool, but when he catches me, he wants my meat!" the pig said as he was still struggling.
