

Name: _____

Date: _____

Section A

State whether the following sentences are simple or compound sentences. (2)

1. All the girls knew the value of the month. _____
2. The children came to school because they wanted to learn. _____

Section B

Divide the following simple sentences into a subject verb and object. (3)

1. Our whole family likes dessert.

Subject: _____

Verb: _____

Object: _____

2. The creative author wrote an amazing story.

Subject: _____

Verb: _____

Object: _____

Section C

Place the jumbled sentences in the correct order. Punctuate your sentences carefully. (3)

1. photographs journalists take

2. and we went to had the party fun

3. she did because not to school she sick was go

Section D

Join the sentences to make compound sentences. Use the conjunctions in brackets. (2)

1. The girl ate her food fast. The girl was hungry. (because)

2. Many children are afraid of something or the other. The children try to overcome their fears. (but)
