

Name: _____ Date: _____

Forms of Government

How many forms of government are there?

Monarchy

The head of state _____ his or her job. That means they got the job through his/her _____.

Example: King or _____.

The King or queen makes the _____ and all major government _____. Today, about _____ countries have monarchs.

Democracy

The people of the country _____ the government. _____ are elected by the people. The people also elect the head of state.

The government makes decisions based on what the _____ want. Citizens control their government by _____.

Example: _____

Dictatorship

The head of state is called a _____. People have _____ or no control over the government. All the power is held by a single person.

A dictator keeps power by _____. They can _____ the citizens by deciding what they should and should not know. People who speak against the dictator can be put in _____ or killed.

Exit Ticket Question: How does our government help you?
