Name Date Reading Comprehension - Summarizing
childhood sum always busy are earliest memo struggled to ke school years d in a storekeep school princip excellent priva of "horrors" a wrote later in Ronald was to send him to about his child mother, "No, to company that	I was born in the United Kingdom, but he spent his mers with his grandparents in Norway. Ronald was denergetic, and often ended up in trouble. One of his ies is speeding to school on his tricycle while his sisters ep up with him. His ability to find trouble made his early fficult. He left his first school after putting a dead mouse r's candy jar, a prank that led to him being beaten by his al. From there he went to boarding school and then to an te school, but Dahl described his school years as being full a result of the "rules, rules rules" and the stories he ife reflect all the darkness he felt during this time. not a very good student. Nonetheless, his mother wanted college. But Ronald refused to do. In a book he wrote hood called Boy: Tales of Childhood, he says he told his hank you. I want to go straight from school to work for a will send me to wonderful faraway places like Africa or d had enough of school, and he could not wait to set out or ure.
PARAGRAPH 1
PARAGRAPH 2

Sentence 2