What to do:

- 1) Read the examples of the I AM poems below.
- 2) Think about some of your own qualities. What makes you unique?
- 3) Complete the blank spaces with your own information/ideas.
- 4) Rewrite your poem on a white sheet of paper.

I AM

By Robert F.

*I am friendly and athletic.
I wonder how many stars are in the sky.
I hear voices cheering.
I see my hockey team winning our tournament.
I want to play in the NHL one day.
I am friendly and athletic.*

*I say that Crosby is better than Ovechkin.
I pretend to be an Olympic champion.
I worry that I will do badly in school.
I try to help my family at home.
I dream that I can fly.
I am friendly and athletic.*

I Am Poem

By Jessica T.-R.

*I am a good listener and very curious.
I wonder why summer is so short.
I hear my favorite song on the radio.
I see pizza with lots of cheese for dinner.
I want a week without any homework.
I am a good listener and very curious.*

*I say that my friends are special people.
I pretend that I am an astronaut flying through space.
I worry that I won't see my friends next year.
I try to write neatly.
I dream that I am a famous rock star
I am a good listener and very curious.*
