

Choose A, B, C or D to fill in the blanks in the sentences below. Write your answers on answer sheet.

1. Every year Mr. Simpson _____ two months in London.
A is spending C spends
B spend D has been spending
2. What will happen if I _____ to school tomorrow?
A won't go C am not going
B don't go D wouldn't go
3. Sarah _____ the dinner yet.
A hasn't cooked C didn't cook
B haven't cooked D won't cook
4. Liz _____ her hair.
A is still doing C still does
B has still been doing D still do
5. Michael was tired because he _____ for six hours.
A drove C has driven
B was driving D had been driving
6. _____ my dictionary anywhere? I need it.
A Are you seeing C Have you seen
B Did you see D Had you seen
7. Willy _____ the poem by heart the whole evening yesterday.
A was learning C has been learning
B has learned D had learnt
8. I have made up my mind. I _____ to Yalta for my holiday.
A go C will go
B am going D would go
9. I hope the plumber _____ the taps by midday.
A will fix C will have fixed
B will be fixing D would fix
10. My brother _____ his girlfriend home now.
A is driving C drives
B drive D has been driving
11. Nobody knows when Den _____ home from the party.
A come C is coming
B comes D will come
12. Natalie _____ through the park for a while and then saw a bus stop at the end of the alley.
A walked C had walked
B was walking D had been walking