

This is Charles. He is a thief, but he is not a dangerous person. He doesn't want any money, gold or jewels, he only steals books, food and clothes.

Charles says that there are a lot of poor people in his small village, so they need all these things, for example, with the books, the children will learn to read,with the food, they will be taller and stronger and they won't get ill, with the clothes they can be hot during the cold winter. My father says that Charles has got a big heart, but he isn't acting properly. We mustn't take other people's belongings and when we want to help other people we should share all that we have and use our hands and intelligence to improve their lifes.

Unfortunately, the police is looking for Charles and when they catch him, he will go to prison We must respect the law or we will get into trouble Always be a good child with a big heart and you will be very happy.

Complete the sentences. Use the 1st Conditional.

1. If the children have books, they_____

2. The children will be taller and stronger if Charles_____

3. If the children get the clothes, they_____

4. If we want to help other people, we_____

5. Charles will go to prison if the police_____

6. We will get into trouble if we_____

7. You will be very happy if you _____

Complete.

Modern Robin Hood, Charles Kelly, is now in prison Tomorrow, he will go to the Court for his trial. If the judge_____ (find) him guilty, Charles _____ (be) in prison for some years.

His lawyer says that he_____(help) Charles if he(admit) that it is not right to rob people and, _____ (promise) not to do it again.

On the other hand, Charles Kelly says that if the judge_____(give) him another opportunity, he_____ (learn) to help people in a different way, but if he_____ (go) to prison, somebody_____ (look after) those people that are poor and unlucky.

Everybody thinks that we_____(live) in a better world if we _____(be) as generous as Charles, but we have rules in our world, and if we) (not respect) them, we_____(be) punished.