In this Frequently Asked Questions page about a Gift Card, all the questions have been removed. Match the questions and the answers, and put the letters in the boxes below. There is one extra letter that you do not need.

(0) .....
No. It is a prepaid card that carries a fixed cash amount. Each time the gift recipient uses the card, the amount they spend is deducted from the available balance.

(1) .....
At any of the more than 800 stores and services in our shopping centre.

(2) .....
Anyone. Friends, relatives, business partners.

(3) .....
Yes. The minimum is $20 and the maximum is $750.

(4) .....
Each shop has its own return policies. They may credit your gift card or provide a cash refund.

(5) .....
No, you can't put more money on it.

(6) .....
You must inform us immediately providing your card number and other information we request. Once you have notified us, your card may be replaced at your written request.

A Who might like this card?
B Can I reload my card?
C Is there a limit as to how much value a gift card can have?
D Can the card ever have a negative balance?
E Is this gift card a credit card?
F What happens if my gift card is lost or stolen?
G Where can it be used?
H What happens if I need to return something I've bought?

0	1	2	3	4	5	6