

A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens

Drag the sentences to put them in order to tell the story:

Marley warns Scrooge not to make the same mistake he did. He also says that 3 other ghosts will visit him tonight.

It is New Year's Eve. Ebenezer Scrooge is a banker, sitting at his desk, checking the list of people who owe him money.

The second ghost takes Scrooge to see the present. He realizes he is still loved and that his helper's son is dying.

His helper asks to leave earlier to buy his son a present. Scrooge says no.

Two men come in to ask for money for the orphans. Scrooge sends them away.

His hands and feet are in chains because he was selfish and greedy in his life.

The first ghost takes Scrooge to the past, when he was a happy boy and a happily married man.

Scrooge decides to change. He gets dressed and goes out.

The last ghost takes Scrooge to see his own funeral. He is shocked to see some people happy at his death.

His nephew comes in and invites Scrooge to New Year's Eve dinner. He says no again.

First, he sends a big turkey and a toy to his helper's home. Then he goes to his nephew's house for dinner and makes sure his helper's son gets well. He also helps the poor and stops being rude, selfish and greedy.

Then, he goes home. Suddenly, he sees the ghost of Marley, his friend at work, who has recently died.

[illegible]

warn: προειδοποιώ

owe: χρωστώ

nephew: ανηψιός

chains:

selfish: εγωιστής

greedy: άπληστος

change: αλλάζω

funeral: κηδεία

turkey:

rude: αγενής