

Unit 6 Fast Fashion

Fast Fashion's Effect on People, The Planet, & You | Patrick Woodyard | TEDxUniversityofMississippi

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mPM9lhackHw>

Watch this TEDx talk, listen to the speaker and complete the following sentences with only one word in each gap.

1. The industry has been completely defined by a lack of _____ between the original producer and the consumers.
2. This has had _____ implications on people, the planet and even us, as the end consumer.
3. Trade barriers have _____, which has enabled major brands to jump from one country to the next.
4. In The US, while much more _____ forms of energy have been established, the vast majority of the products are made in the developing world.
5. Fast fashion is responsible itself for 10% of the world's carbon _____.
6. Throughout the _____ process, a tremendous amount of water is used.
7. Polyester is a man-made, energy-intensive _____.
8. The fashion industry is the second _____ polluter of fresh water.
9. Four billion pounds of _____ waste is put into landfills each year.
10. In Bangladesh, the minimum _____ has been kept at a low place so as to attract foreign investment.
11. This is an industry where child labor and forced labor _____.
12. Nisolo industry has cut out all the _____ along the way.
13. Governments have the ability to _____ these changes.
14. 91% of millennial consumers are willing to give a(n) _____ brand a try.
15. Free market shows that where there is _____, supply will be created.