

1 Fill in the gaps with will or be going to and the verb in brackets, as in the example.

- 1 A: I'm too tired to wash the dishes.
B: Don't worry! I ► 'll wash (wash) them for you.
- 2 A: I don't want to tidy my room.
B: If you don't, I
(not/let) you go to the cinema.
- 3 A: Do you have any plans for this evening?
B: Yes, I (visit) my friend, Maria.
- 4 A: Can somebody answer the phone?
B: I (get) it.
- 5 A: What are you doing on Friday afternoon?
B: I (have) lunch with a client.
- 6 A: Do you prefer orange juice or Cola?
B: I (have) some orange juice, please.

2 Circle the correct item.

- 1 The bus to London at 8:30 tomorrow morning.
A leaves B is leaving
C going to leave
- 2 She has enough money now, so she that computer.
A is going to buy B buys C is buying
- 3 I'm very tired. I sleep early tonight.
A am going B go to C will go to
- 4 I you as soon as I arrive at the hotel.
A will call B called C call
- 5 We can't come with you this weekend. We the children's bedrooms.
A are painting B paint C will paint
- 6 Please tell me! I promise I tell anyone.
A didn't B am not C won't