

New York, New York

Use the words in the word box to answer the questions.
Each word will be used only once.

Long Island	Jamaica	Howe	Gowanus
Manhattan	Britain	Hessians
Brooklyn Heights	Washington	Harlem Heights

1. This general has been a commander-in-chief of the continental army for a year without fighting a battle.

2. This British general plans to attack Washington and his army at the Heights.

3. General Putnam informed Washington that the British troops were moving up what road.

4. Lord Sterling was concerned about this road because it was undefended.

5. These were German mercenaries hired to fight by the British.

6. Where was General Washington's headquarters located before he retreated in the middle of the night after losing the battles?

7. From where did Washington retreat?

8. What place did the British occupy after Washington's retreat?

9. Washington moved with his troops to this place on Manhattan Island.

10. General Washington's strategy was to delay the war, which he hoped would wear out this country's troops and give him time to build and train an army.
