Hi Anna
Yes, my a you <sup>2</sup> chocolate <sup>4</sup> My aunt a	cnow that you're enjoying your holiday.  unt and uncle are quite traditional, so  bring a present with you. You  spend a lot of money – a small box of es or some simple flowers are fine. You  take your shoes off when you go inside. and uncle never wear shoes in the house.
And you in very rude	arrive on time! Being late is different t choose a ' leave son	y serve ourselves from big plates with types of food on the table. You 6ny food that you don't like and you eat everything on your plate – it's OK to be food, but you 8 leave any rice cause rice is very important in our culture.
I'm sure y	ou'll have a wonderful time!

Hi Kamlai

Thanks for your email. I had a fantastic time at your aunt and uncle's house. Now I need some more advice. I want to spend a couple of days on the beach. I'm sure there 'must / could be a good beach not too far from Bangkok.

Hi Anna

There are so many lovely beaches in Thailand! Hua Hin beach is very popular, and you <sup>2</sup>can't / 'II be able to get a bus there from Sai Tai Mai Terminal in Bangkok. The journey <sup>3</sup>should / must take about 3.5 hours. However, it <sup>4</sup>can't / can get very busy at the weekend.

You 'can't / could visit Koh Lipe. That's my favourite beach! You may / will be able to like it because it's really peaceful and beautiful, but you might / should get a bit bored in the evenings. The other problem is that you mustn't / can't get there very quickly – it's 800 km from Bangkok.

Why don't you talk to my cousins? They "Il be able to / must give you the best advice, because they live in Bangkok and they love swimming in the sea!

Have a fantastic time!

Kamlai
