

Simple Past: Writing Exercise.

Read the sentences and change them into negative and interrogative form.

Look at the example. Remember to use “did” and change the verb back.

There's a list of verbs for you at the end.

Example:

Affirmative: I went to my grandparents' house last week.

Negative: I didn't go to my grandparents' house last week.

Interrogative: Did you go to your grandparents' house last week?

1. Affirmative	I bought a new hat two days ago.
Negative
Interrogative
2. Affirmative	Peter drank a lot of cola yesterday.
Negative
Interrogative
3. Affirmative	My sister had a birthday party on Wednesday.
Negative
Interrogative
4. Affirmative	You took my English book a week ago.
Negative
Interrogative
5. Affirmative	I left school at 12 o'clock today.
Negative
Interrogative

Regular	Irregular
PLAY = PLAYED	GO = WENT
VISIT = VISITED	LEAVE = LEFT
WATCH = WATCHED	HAVE = HAD
SMILE = SMILED	BUY = BOUGHT
STUDY = STUDIED	TAKE = TOOK
FINISH = FINISHED	DRINK = DRANK