Part 1 You will hear people talking in eight different situations. For questions 1-8, choose the best answer (A, B or C). You overhear a woman speaking to her husband on You hear a man talking about a course he is taking. What is he learning on the course? the telephone. What does she want him to do? A a foreign language A take their daughter to ballet class B management skills 5 B make a meal for their daughter C computer skills 1 C deliver something You overhear a conversation at a market. 2 You hear a man speaking to a saleswoman in a shop. What is the relationship between the speakers? What is the man buying? A mother and daughter A a suit B employer and employee 6 B a jacket C greengrocer and customer 2 C a shirt You will hear a man talking about a test. 3 You hear a man talking about a new diet. Why did he find it difficult? How does he feel about it? A The test was unfair. A pleased B He was nervous. 7 R depressed C He wasn't prepared. 3 C bored You hear this announcement on the radio. You hear an introduction to a talk. What must you do with your letter? Who is the guest speaker? A take it to the radio station A a poet B send it to the film company B a biographer C take it with you to the cinema 4 C a film director Part 2 You will hear part of a radio interview about a writer and naturalist called Ian Thatcher. For questions 9-18, complete the sentences. WILDLIFE EXPERT Ian Thatcher is Ann's The title of Ann's biography about Ian is 10 Ian was educated by 11 Ian's brother Charles found 12 in the wardrobe. Michael Thatcher became a well-known 14 of unusual animals is well-known. Ian's The British Wildlife Sanctuary displays some of the 15 alive. Ian Thatcher has been trying to save animals in danger for 16 the sanctuary and handling visitors.

18

44 PRACTICE TEST 3

Ann's job involves

Ann also works hard to