Bad idea! Education is important because...
Defer for a year instead/ distance learning maybe?

Hello Claire,

I'm sorry I've been out of touch but my life is super busy these days!!! And let me tell you why.

My husband Rick and I finally decided to drop out of college and make our dreams come true! We are going to sell our place, buy a motorhome and live on the road! I'm so excited!

Lots of disadvantages..

There are advantages too...

Tell me what you think about this idea. Rick and I cannot find any disadvantage in our new future lifestyle, but you've always been more practical than me, so please express your point of view! But try to say something positive as well.

Anyway, I've got so many things to take care of! Gotta run!

Get back to me asap!

Love,

Lily

Answer these questions.

PS: How are things with you and Anna? Did you guys make up or not? What was the reason you argued, anyway?
