Word formation

FRIENDS. Everyone wants to have friends, but building up new (1) ..... is not always easy. A few people are born with outgoing (2) .....; they have a natural (3). ..... to make new friends wherever they go. But not many people are (4) ..... at ease in a room full of strangers. Most of us feel (5) ..... when we meet new people, and this can occassionally make us appear (6) ....., when in fact we are just shy. In any case, the (7) ..... of new friendships is a gradual process – it doesn't just happen overnight. Long-standing friendships (8) ..... have several things in common. The friends enjoy the same sorts of (9) ..... , and share similar beliefs and values, they are (10) ..... with one another, and have similar (11) ..... They (12) ..... in each other. when they have problems. Friends never share a (13) ..... time with one another and are usually very (14) ..... of each other. It sometimes is (15) ..... that they are friends by their looks because some share a taste in clothes. Having a close friend helps you gain (16) ..... in terms of (17)..... In order to be a (18) ..... friend there are a few (19) ..... such as (20) ..... and (21) ..... .

1 RELATE
2 PERSONAL
3 ABLE
4 COMPLETE
5 NERVE
6 FRIEND
7 DEVELOP
8 GENERAL
9 ACTIVE
10 HONESTLY
11 EXPECT,
12 CONFIDENCE
13 BOREDOM
14 APPRECIATION
15 APPEARANCE
16 STRONG
17 CONFIDE,
18 TRUTH
19 REQUIRE
20 TOLERANT,
21 ASSISTANT

LIVEWORKSHEETS