

Task 3 (8 points)

Listen to the radio interview with Ian Cross, Professor of Music, in which he is discussing dancing.

Read the questions and circle the correct option (A, B or C), according to the interview. An example

(0) has been given.

--

DANCING

0. What does the interviewer do at the beginning of the programme?

A She introduces the guest.

B She introduces herself.

C She greets the audience.

0.	A
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.

1. Which is true according to Prof. Cross? A Dance evolved to help us walk upright. B Dance and language may have a similar purpose. C Scientists are trying to date the origin of dance.	5. Which is true about the 'silent disco' experiment? A People were dancing in different rooms. B People were dancing to the same music. C People were dancing to different music.
2. What does Prof. Cross say about apes' ability to dance? A He used to be sceptical of the idea. B He does not find the evidence convincing. C He has always assumed apes could dance.	6. What did the scientists control during the experiment? A The dance moves people were performing. B The time they danced with each other. C The topics people were allowed to discuss.
3. Why does Prof. Cross mention the First Fleet landing in Australia? A To support a fact about dance.	7. What helped people remember each other during the experiment? A Wearing the same colours.

B To stress its historical importance. C To discuss Australian Aboriginal dance.	B Dancing at the same speed. C Dancing closer to each other.
4. What would the interviewer like to know? A How people communicate via dance. B What other purpose dance may have. C Why scientists are interested in dance.	8. According to Prof. Cross, what can people use dance for? A To improve their memory. B To compare musical preferences. C To form an initial impression.