

The Present Perfect Tense: Choose expressions for since and for

Exercise

Each example has two choices. Choose one answer for "for" and one answer for "since."

Type each answer after "for" or "since" so that the example is correct. Look at the information and the example.

Please do not forget to add a period after each response.

You are creating a complete sentence!

Information: Use "for" for a period of time.
 Use "since" for a specific time.

#	Sentences to complete
E.g.,	I have had my backpack for I have had my backpack since	six months / September six months. September.
1	I have studied in this class for I have studied in this class since	Monday / a long time
2	I have played video games since I have played video games for	three years / I was 12 years old
3	I have been in this country since I have been in this country for	six months / August 15
4	I have been a fan of Netflix shows for I have been a fan of Netflix shows since	two years / I discovered Netflix.
5	I have been happy for I have been happy since	a few hours / 8 a.m. this morning
6	I have been friends with Tom since I have been friends with Tom for	a few years / 2019

