

COMPARATIVE AND SUPERLATIVE 9TH

1. Form the degrees of comparisons:

	COMPARATIVE	SUPERLATIVE
short	Short ER	short EST
young new small careful modern popular dangerous expensive little bad good much/many nice

2. Choose the correct variant:

- Mary is ____ than Kate.
a) tall b) taller c) the tallest
- Tom is ____ than Bob.
a) short b) shorter c) the shortest
- Bill reads ____ than Ben.
a) much b) more c) the most
- Pam is ____ than Helen.
a) old b) older c) the oldest
- Mona's dress is ____ than Pam's dress.
a) cheap b) cheaper c) the cheapest
- Nick is ____ than Mike.
a) fast b) faster c) the fastest
- Tim is ____ than his brother.
a) helpful b) more helpful c) the most helpful

3. Comparative or superlative?

- April is ____ (warm) than January.
- August is the ____ (hot) month of the year.
- November is ____ (cold) than September.
- Sam is the ____ (tall) boy in our class.
- My mobile is ____ (expensive) than yours.
- This text is the ____ (easy) in the book.
- It is the ____ (boring) film this week.
- Pam's hair is ____ (long) than Kate's hair.
- Bob is ____ (tall) than Nick.
- The ____ (beautiful) place is Paris.
- These cakes are the ____ (good) in this shop.
- Your car is ____ (cheap) than mine.

6. Correct the mistakes:

- I have the heavier bag.
I HAVE THE HEAVIEST BAG
- Tom is best in our group.
- Helen is thin than Pam.
- Mona is happiest than Liz.
- Tony is the oldest than Pete.
- This apple is the sweeter.
- Your watch is cheapest than mine.
- The tree is the older in the street.
- My house is the most expensive than yours.
- This animal is most dangerous in the zoo.
- Sam gets up the earliest than Bill.
- This building is the modern in this town.
- February is the colder month of the year.
- May is the warmest than March.