

| Present Continuous | be going to | Future Simple | Present Simple |
|--|---|--|---|
| S + am/is/are + Ving | S + am/is/are + going to + V | S + will + V | S + V/Ves |
| 1. Talk about future arrangements (they usually involve another person, time and place). | 2. talk about our own plans / intentions / dreams. 3. We use be going to to talk about predictions based on facts / evidence (something we see, hear, feel, smell). | 4. talk about spontaneous decisions. 5. talk about predictions based on our opinion. 6. talk about promises, fears, threats. | 7. talk about timetables and schedules. |

- a) I like this runner. I think he will win.
- b) The plane for Rome leaves at 13:35.
- c) What are your plans for this summer? – I don't know. Oh! Maybe I'll visit Rome! My sister has invited me to visit her many times!
- d) Jane is coming back from Rome at 12 and her husband is meeting her at the airport.
- e) Look at him! He's the fastest runner. He's going to win the race.
- f) I'm going to visit Rome this summer. I'm looking at different hotels.
- g) I promise you that I will always be your friend. I'll kill you if you tell anyone!