

Match words with their definitions:

DATA

to change electronic information or signals into a secret code

DATA LOSS

information collected for use

HACKER

things that are done to protect a person, organization, or country and their computer information against crime or attacks carried out using the internet

ENCRYPT

someone who gets into other people's computer systems without permission in order to find out information or to do something illegal

VULNERABLE

to stop something from happening

PREVENT

able to be easily physically, emotionally, or mentally hurt, influenced, or attacked

CYBERSECURITY

an error condition in information systems in which information is destroyed by failures