

Quiz - Plot Elements

1. What is plot?
  - A. A story.
  - B. A series of events within a story.
  - C. A plan.

2. What is another word for "Exposition"?
  - A. Plot start
  - B. First part
  - C. Introduction

3. What three things are included in the Exposition?
  - A. setting, characters, and opening situation
  - B. setting, plot, and characters
  - C. characters, time, and place

4. What is the setting?
  - A. the place where a story takes place.
  - B. the time and place a story takes place.
  - C. the time the story takes place.

5. Rising Action is...
  - A. the events leading up to the climax.
  - B. the events leading to the resolution.
  - C. all events of the story

6. The Climax is...

- A. The most important part of the story.
- B. The most exciting part of the story.
- C. Where the problem is solved or where we can see how it may be solved.
- D. All of the above

7. Falling Action is..

- A. the events leading up to the climax.
- B. the events leading to the resolution.
- C. all events of the story

8. The resolution is...

- A. How the problem is solved and the story comes to an end.
- B. Where another character is introduced.
- C. How the story ends.

9. Another word for "Conflict" is...

- A. Solution
- B. Fight
- C. Problem

10. The "Theme" of the story is...

- A. what the story is about.
- B. the lesson the author wants to teach us.
- C. the song that plays during the opening.