

Comma or No Comma?

Read the following sentences. Decide if you should put a comma before the joining word-- bolded in red. Write "comma" or "no comma" for each sentence.

1. Comma rules are tricky and often confusing.
2. Comma rules are tricky and they are often confusing.
3. I want to earn my GED and I want to take college classes.
4. Juan wants to earn his GED and start an apprenticeship.
5. Janelle is interested in pursuing a career in science and healthcare.
6. Earning a GED is an important goal and it can open the door to future opportunities.
7. Many students want to go to college but they aren't sure how to pay for it.
8. Students can apply for financial aid (FAFSA) so they can access grants and lonas.
9. In Oregon, GED grads can apply for the Oregon Promise grant and other scholarships, too.
10. You don't have to pay back grants or scholarships.