The kind of facilities and services available to you on holiday varies greatly according to your choice of accommodation. Catered accommodation such as hotels, guest houses and B&Bs is generally categorised using a star system which varies from country to country.

Generally one star tends to indicate budget accommodation, offering basic facilities such as en suite bathrooms and TVs in all the rooms and services such as breakfast, drinks and daily room cleaning by chambermaids.

Two stars may additionally offer guests bath towels, complimentary toiletries such as shower gel, a reading light, and a credit card payment facility.

Three star hotels often also provide a hairdryer and telephone in every room as well as internet access either in a public area or in the room, laundry and ironing services, and the hotel reception is staffed for around 14 hours by bilingual staff, speaking English and the native language.

The reception of a four star hotel should be manned for up to 18 hours, have a refrigerated minibar or room service for drinks, and an à la carte restaurant. There would also probably be a lift and more comfortable furniture.

Finally five star luxury accommodation should offer a reception area staffed 24/7 by multilingual staff, a doorman to welcome guests, valet parking, a porter to take luggage to your room, and a safe in the room for valuables. There are often gym and spa facilities available too.
