

Who's Who in the World of Crime?

A. Match the word to their meanings in Spanish:

prisoner	detective	security guards	jurado
forger	juez	lawyers	investigador científico
thief	ladrón	jury	guardia de seguridad
detective	testigo	suspect	ladrón de casas
witness	víctima	expert	experto
judge	falsificador	burglar	abogado
Victim	preso	forensic scientist	sospechoso

B. Choose the correct words to complete the quiz.

1. A thief / forensic scientist works in a crime laboratory.
2. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle wrote stories about Sherlock Holmes - a famous burglar / detective.
3. Police always look for a witness / judge when they investigate a crime.
4. Security guards / Lawyers represent their clients in court.
5. In US Federal Courts, there are 12 people on the jury / suspect.
6. An expert / A victim usually knows a lot about a specific subject.
- 7 A forger / prisoner copies other people's work.

C. Answer the questions with the words below.

a victim    a suspect    a judge    a thief    a witness    a prisoner

1. Who stole a hundred mobile phones?
2. Who can't leave prison for a year?
3. Who did the police arrest after the crime?
4. Who saw the murder and told the police about it?
5. Who did the ambulance take to hospital after a burglar shot him?
6. Who sent the criminal to prison for 12 years?