

Highschool gossip!

Read Helen's email about her highschool lovelife.

Do you remember my friend Maria? Well, her ex-boyfriend, James, has asked me out. He told me he had fallen in love with me the day we'd met, and that he'd broken up with Maria because he wanted to go out with me! I really like James, but I told him I was worried that Maria and I would fall out if I agreed to go out with him. I explained that she and I had been best friends since primary school, and that I didn't want to lose her friendship. Then my friend Nina said she knew what to do. She said she was going to introduce Maria to her cousin Nick, because Nick really liked Maria, and she thought Maria would like him too! She said he could come to the school gates to meet us (Maria and me) the following day. I told her that it sounded like a great idea, but that she had to keep it a secret that night when she saw Maria at the disco!

Now use the email to help you imagine what James, Helen and Nina actually said, and complete the sentences with the correct verb forms, pronouns and time expressions.

James: "I _____ in love with _____ the day we _____. I _____ up with Maria because I _____ to go out with _____."

Helen: "I _____ worried that Maria and I _____ fall out if I _____ to go out with _____. She and I _____ best friends since primary school, and I _____ want to lose _____ friendship."

Nina: "I _____ what to do! I _____ going to introduce Maria to Nick, because Nick really _____ Maria, and I _____ she _____ like him too! He _____ come to the school gates to meet _____."

Helen: "That _____ like a great idea! But you _____ keep it a secret _____ when _____ Maria at the disco!"