

Character	The character is described with detail about his/her characteristics and feelings throughout the story. He/she is present during the story.	The character is described only with a few characteristics.	The character is important in the story, he/she can be described as a "good person".	The character works against the important character and creates conflict.	The character doesn't change throughout the story and his/her personality or feelings remain the same until the end of the story.	The character changes throughout the story. His/her personality, decisions or feelings change according to the circumstances.
Bruno
Shmuel
The Fury
Pavel						