In this episode of Suits, Jessica orders Harvey that he has to work together with Louis to save Lucille Jackson's foundation Stable Shelters from financially going under and to get the money that a man named Anthony Mazlo has ----- from her foundation. This partnership between the senior partner and junior partner got off to a rocky start when Louis went ahead and ----- Mazlo's second in command without Harvey and caused Elliot Perkins to die from a ----- and not from the pressure that Louis was putting on the man to find out where the embezzled money is. Louis tried to redeem himself by getting another witness to come forward and ----- against Mazlo, even though this particular plan ----- in his face when it was revealed to be a set-up. Mike, the resident genius associate got himself cornered in a way when Jerome Jensen's daughter, Lola, threatened to oust him as a fraud after finding out that Mike never went to Harvard as well as his other personal information like his social security number. Mike tried to convince Harvey to do something about his dilemma, but he told Mike not to worry about it because it's nothing but smoke and mirrors. The threat is what it is: a threat and Lola will never go through with it since she just wants to ----- with her----- father, as she stole 2 million dollars from her father's company under a fake company name called Locksley LLC and plans to give it away. In the end, Lucille got her money back, and Anthony Mazlo got what he deserved for stealing the money. Lola also ----- on Mike (after he helped her repair her relationship with her father) by putting in his information into the Harvard Alumni database and getting him a real law degree from the
