READING COMPREHENSION

PAST SIMPLE

Yesterday my wife and I went to a restaurant. It was a romantic evening. But at eleven o'clock, the lights went out. We heard a lot of screams. We didn't know what to do. We wanted to go out. Suddenly, a man appeared and said: 'Stay there!' He was a thief. He had a gun in his hands. There was another man beside him. We gave them our money. After ten minutes, the police arrived and they caught the thieves. But we never recovered our money!

- There was és el passat de there is: Hi havia

Language Focus

Look for the meaning of these words:

Scream:

After:

Thief:

Besides:

Answer the following questions about the text.

1. When did this happen?
2. What time was it when the lights went out?
3. What did they want to do then?
4. Who was the man that appeared?
5. What did the people give the thieves?
6. Did the police catch the thieves?

LIVEWORKSHEETS