

Reading

When you come across a word that you do not understand, you can use the words in the sentence to help you figure out or guess its meaning.

SIGNPOST

These words are known as contextual clues.

Read the sentences below. Use the contextual clues (underlined words) to help you to guess the meanings of the words in red.

- 1 Rita felt lonely as she had no friends in her new school.
- 2 Katie exclaimed, 'This dress is beautiful! It's gorgeous!'
- 3 Tim was annoyed with me yesterday but he is pleased with me today.
- 4 'What dreadful weather! It has been raining all week.'